ABOUT LORENA, TEXAS

City Overview

Lorena is on Interstate Highway 35 and U.S. Highway 81, 13 mi southwest of Waco in southern McLennan County. Settlers began arriving in the area in the 1850s. The townsite was laid out in 1881, when the Missouri, Kansas and Texas line was being built between Hillsboro and Taylor. The community was named in honor of Lorena Westbrook, the daughter of a prominent local family.

Lorena has a 2023 population of 1,783 and is currently declining at a rate of -0.22% annually and its population has decreased by -0.67% since the most recent census, which recorded a population of 1,795 in 2020.

The city of Lorena is situated within a relatively short drive of most of the major cities of Texas: 101 mi north to Fort Worth, 106 mi north-northeast to Dallas, 88 mi southwest to Austin, and 185 mi southeast to Houston.

HISTORY AT A GLANCE:

Lorena is a community honoring the past and embracing the future. The MKT Railroad played an important part in establishing the city. A railroad stop was placed in Lorena to pick up cotton from the nearby cotton gins. Settled in 1854, the city was named after Lorena Westbrook, daughter of a prominent citizen of the community.

SPECIALIZED BANKS

Over the course of about thirty-five years, residents of the Lorena area supported several small banks that specialized in farm loans. A private bank was established in Lorena in 1894; it was reorganized as Lorena State Bank in 1909. A second bank, called the First National Bank of Lorena, was established in 1914.

COMMUNITY & RECREATIONAL:

Today, Lorena is rich in community - the Olde Town area along Center Street is drawing tourists and visitors to enjoy the historic buildings, specialty shops, and fine dining establishments. McBrayer City Park is the City's public recreational facility. This approximate 2.5-acre facility includes passive recreation, a hike and bike trail, and a picnic area with a pavilion. The park is centrally located along West Center Street.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction on honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation on agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction on known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction on impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specially authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o any confidential information or any other information on that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation on agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information on purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
